

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

REPORT

To the Honorable the Legislature of the State of New York :

The trustees of the State Library respectfully present their Sixty-third Annual Report.

At the close of the year 1879, the volumes contained in the library were as follows:

In the General Library	79, 627
In the Law Library	31, 171
	110, 798	110, 798

During the year 1880 there were added :

To the General Library.....	2, 076
To the Law Library.....	1, 138
	3, 214	3, 214

At the close of the year 1880 :

In the General Library.....	81, 703
In the Law Library.....	32, 309
	114, 012	114, 012

Of the additions made to the Library there were :

Acquired by purchase	2, 116
Acquired by donation or exchange	1, 098
	3, 214	3, 214

With reference to the growth and condition of the Library, the trustees, in connection with the above tabular statement, refer to their report for the year 1878, where the policy to be pursued in the future development of the Library is laid down. In the additions made during the past year the policy there explained has been kept steadily in view. The annexed lists will give in detail these additions.

In the Law Library the trustees are able to report that by the purchase of a copy of Bradford's first edition of the laws of the colony of New York, printed in 1694, at the Brinley sale, the set of laws of the State is rendered complete. This work is exceedingly rare. Not more than five copies are known to be extant, and of these, probably but one copy is equal to the one purchased, in point of preservation and completeness.

With a view of promoting the utility of the Law Library, the trustees have directed the preparation of a subject-index catalogue, which has been made the subject of a special report, transmitted to the Legislature at its present session.

The law requires that the following law libraries make annual reports to the Board of Regents. An abstract of these reports is here given :

1. Court of Appeals Library at Rochester. L. R. Satterlee, Librarian.
At the close of 1879 the library contained about.....	10, 208

STATE LIBRARY, March 12, 1881.

APPENDIX A.

To the Honorable the Regents of the University of the State of New York:

GENTLEMEN — The law department of the library has been increased, during the year 1880, by the addition of 1,138 volumes. Of these, about three hundred volumes were received under the system of inter-State and foreign exchange. The character of the books added has not varied materially from that of former years, a large part having been continuations of the American and British reports, statutes, law periodicals and standard elementary works.

Valuable additions have been made to the collection of statute law and State papers; among these, are the session laws of Alabama, Florida, Georgia and North Carolina, for the years 1861 to 1865, and the parliamentary papers of Great Britain for the sessions of 1876, 1877 and 1878, bound in one hundred and twenty-five volumes, folio.

A copy of Bradford's first edition of the laws of the colony of New York, printed in 1694, was purchased at the sale of the Brinley library. Not more than five copies of this edition of the colonial laws are known to be extant. Of these, it is understood that one copy is in the Lenox library; another, known as the Van Schaack copy, is the property of Mr. A. J. Vanderpoel, of New York, and is the only copy which is equal to the Brinley copy in point of preservation and completeness; another, is in the New York Society library, and an imperfect copy is in the office of the Secretary of State. The copy purchased contains not only the 1694 edition of the laws, but also the acts passed at subsequent sessions down to October, 1708, bound together in one volume.

The importance of securing this volume is seen in the fact that before its purchase the State of New York did not possess a complete series of the various editions of its own laws. Several of the most important acts passed during the colonial period are contained therein, among which are the acts relating to the judicial organization of the province, which the courts and the legal profession, not unfrequently, have need to consult.

The rarity of the volume, and the improbability of another copy being offered for sale within any reasonable period, together with the fact that it was the first book printed in New York,* excited an earnest competition among several bidders for its possession and carried the price to $1,600, at which sum it was secured for the State library. Although this is a large sum to pay for a single work, it is believed that the nature of the volume, and its importance to the legal history of the State, abundantly justifies the action of your honorable board in authorizing its purchase.

* "William Bradford, who has been mentioned as the first who printed in Pennsylvania, introduced the art into New York. He continued his printing in Philadelphia until some time in the year 1693, when he set up a press in New York and was appointed printer to the government. The first work from his press was a small folio volume of the laws of the colony." [Thomas' hist. of printing in Am., vol. 2, p. 91.]

The use of the works in this department of the library, by judges of the courts, State officers, members of the legislature and of the bar, has been more extensive during the past year than that of any preceding year. The need of a subject-index catalogue of the books in this department, increases with the increase of volumes and of use, and I am happy to state that the action of your honorable board in July last, in directing the preparation of such a catalogue, has met with the most cordial appreciation from the bench and the bar of the State. With an assistant to attend to the routine work in the library, I have been able to give, thus far, about three months of labor to the preparation of the catalogue.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

STEPHEN B. GRISWOLD,

Librarian of the Law Library.
